The Core Principles of The Way of the Master Ministry

The Way of the Master ministry is built upon several foundational principles aimed at equipping Christians to share their faith confidently and biblically. These principles focus on the importance of the law and gospel, using scripture to convict and convert, and the role of personal testimony in evangelism.

Emphasis on the Law and the Gospel

The ministry teaches that the law of God, as revealed in the Ten Commandments, serves to show individuals their need for salvation by highlighting sin. The Way of the Master stresses that both the law and the gospel are essential components of effective evangelism.

Use of Scripture in Evangelism

Scripture plays a central role in The Way of the Master's methodology. Evangelists are encouraged to use direct Bible references when engaging with others about faith, helping people recognize their spiritual condition and the need for Christ. This approach is designed to be respectful, clear, and persuasive without relying on emotional manipulation or vague arguments.

Personal Testimony and Relational Evangelism
