This guide aims to provide a comprehensive overview of invasions, including preparation strategies, tips for participating, and how to maximize your rewards.

What is an Invasion in New World?

Invasions are a unique gameplay element in "New World" that occurs when a territory is under threat from corrupted forces. During an invasion, players are tasked with defending their territory against waves of NPC enemies. Successful defense is crucial, as it helps maintain control over the territory and ensures the survival of the settlement's economy and players' interests.

Understanding Invasion Mechanics

To effectively participate in an invasion, it is essential to understand the mechanics that govern these events.

Invasion Schedule

Invasions are not random; they occur on a set schedule:

1. Trigger Conditions: A territory can be invaded once the corruption level reaches a certain threshold. This can happen through player inactivity or failure to repel corruption in previous invasions.
2. Time of Day: Invasions are scheduled events, typically occurring at specific times throughout the week. Players should check the territory's schedule to prepare accordingly.

Invasion Phases

Invasions consist of several phases that players must navigate:

1. Preparation Phase: Players have a limited time to get ready before the invasion begins. This includes gathering supplies, organizing teams, and strategizing.
2. Wave Phases: During the invasion, players face multiple waves of enemies, each with varying difficulty and types.
3. Final Boss Phase: If the players successfully fend off the waves, they will face a final boss that poses a significant challenge.

Preparation for Invasion

Preparation is key to a successful invasion. Here are some essential tips to ensure you are ready when the time comes.

Gear and Loadout

1. Gear Level: Ensure your gear is at least at the level of the territory you are defending. Higher gear will increase your chances of survival and effectiveness in combat.
2. Weapons and Builds: Choose weapons that complement your role in the invasion. Common roles include:
  - Tank: High durability and crowd control abilities.
  - DPS: High damage output to eliminate enemies quickly.
  - Healer: Support roles that keep teammates alive and energized.

Gathering Supplies

Stock up on essential items to boost your performance during the invasion:

- Healing Potions: Vital for sustaining health during intense battles.
- Food Buffs: Cooked food can provide buffs to health, stamina, and damage.
- Repair Kits: Ensure your gear remains in top condition throughout the event.

Team Coordination

Effective communication and coordination with your team can make or break an invasion:

- Assign Roles: Clearly define roles for each player to ensure balanced coverage.
- Use Voice Chat: Utilizing voice chat can enhance communication, allowing for quick adjustments during the invasion.

Utilizing Structures

Make use of the environment:

- Walls and Barricades: Use structures for cover and to funnel enemies into choke points.
- Turrets: If available, turrets can provide significant firepower against waves of enemies.
