Building Your Party

When forming your party, consider the following:

1. Balance: Aim for a mix of physical and magical damage dealers, support characters, and tanks.
2. Synergy: Choose characters whose abilities complement each other. For instance, pairing a damage dealer like Olberic with a support character like Primrose can create powerful combinations.

- Use Consumables Wisely: Save healing items for tough battles, but don't hesitate to use them if your party is at risk.
- Sell Unused Items: Keep your inventory manageable by selling items that are no longer useful.
