Understanding Reflexive Verbs

Reflexive verbs are verbs where the subject and the object are the same; that is, the action is performed by the subject on itself. In Spanish, reflexive verbs are accompanied by reflexive pronouns, which are:

- me (myself)
- te (yourself, informal)
- se (himself, herself, itself, yourselves formal)
- nos (ourselves)
- os (yourselves, informal plural)
- se (themselves, yourselves plural)

Common reflexive verbs include:

- levantarse (to get up)
- vestirse (to get dressed)
- bañarse (to bathe oneself)
- acostarse (to go to bed)

Conjugation of Reflexive Verbs

Conjugating reflexive verbs involves two components: the reflexive pronoun and the conjugated verb. The reflexive pronoun must agree with the subject of the verb. Here's how it works in the present tense:

1. Identify the subject of the sentence.
2. Choose the correct reflexive pronoun that corresponds to the subject.
3. Conjugate the verb according to the subject in the present tense.
4. Place the reflexive pronoun before the conjugated verb or attach it to the infinitive.

Example:

- Yo (I): Me levanto (I get up).
- Tú (You, informal): Te levantas (You get up).
- Él/Ella (He/She): Se levanta (He/She gets up).
- Nosotros (We): Nos levantamos (We get up).
- Vosotros (You all, informal): Os levantáis (You all get up).
- Ellos/Ellas (They): Se levantan (They get up).
