The Five Purposes

Warren outlines five key purposes that he believes are fundamental to every person's life:

1. Worship: Recognizing and honoring God through our actions and attitudes. Worship is not just about singing hymns or attending church services; it encompasses a lifestyle of gratitude and reverence.
2. Ministry: Serving others and using our unique gifts and talents to contribute to the well-being of those around us. This involves both formal ministry roles and informal acts of kindness.
3. Evangelism: Sharing the message of Jesus Christ with others. Warren emphasizes the importance of communicating one's faith and spreading hope to those who may be lost or searching for meaning.
4. Fellowship: Building relationships and community with other believers. Warren highlights the necessity of being connected to a community that supports and encourages spiritual growth.
5. Discipleship: Growing in faith and knowledge of God's word. This purpose involves a commitment to learning, prayer, and spiritual maturity.

These purposes are interrelated and work together to form a comprehensive understanding of one's purpose in life.
